Godly Play

Hear a Story

Enter into the Worship Space

Respond Spiritually

Why?

- Scripture
- Praise and worship
 - Connectedness

The Godly-Play room

A room that is for the children

Does this say “this room is for you”???

Furniture

It makes materials inviting and available

We need shelves that are low so children can reach
With many shelves so materials stay organized
With doors that can be removed or folded back so children can see the materials

Furniture

Where children learn stewardship by caring for a room that they enjoy

Light and bright colours that appeal to children, with durable easy-to-clean surfaces

Furniture

A respectful place where children's work is safe

Since we share the classroom, our shelves need locking doors

Furniture

A calm space where children engage God deeply

Furniture should be matching colours and sizes

Story Materials

Small figures used in acting out the stories can be bought or (better!) hand-crafted by church members

These are made from FIMO/Sculpey Clay

Story Materials

Joseph and his brothers:

Clothes-peg dolls, scraps of fabric, found items

Story Materials

A different example of the same story

The flat wooden “people of god” figures shown here on the left are bought from the “Godly Play” store

Story Materials

Another example of story figures

This one fabric dolls for the Nativity story

Story Materials

“Parable Boxes”

All the same size and colour (gold!) but with different contents

Story Materials

Desert Bag or Desert Box
